COSTLY WORK BY DOGS.

(Danville Advocate.)
A few nights ago dogs killed twenty-one fine sheep for Mr. Lefroy Bonta, who resides on the Harrodsburg pike. Not satisfied with such great destruction the worthless curs killed and partly devoured a fine venturing heifer. And yet some people kick against the dog tax.

GETTING AFTER LOBBYISTS

Frankfort, Ky., January 26.—Representative W. A. Price, of Covington, will be called before the bar of the House of Representatives tomorrow morning and examined concerning the resolution, which he introduced today in the House, asking for an investigation of Sam J. Shackelford and Percy Haly.

The Rules Committee tonight decided that the resolution on the House in the resolution of Price should not go unchallenged and that the integrity of the House was attacked by the manner in which it was alleged in the resolution Haly and Shackelford had a hand in the organization of the House.

MASTER JOHN

FRANCIS O'DONNELL

Given Enjoyable Celebration of His 8th Birthday at His Parents' Home—Also Has Matinee Party at The Gem.

To a few of his classmates of St. Patrick's School, John Francis O'Donnell, on Monday afternoon gave a Matinee party, it being his 8th birthday. The hours of entertainment were from 3 until 8 o'clock. On the dismissal of school the party required to the Gem Theater, each guest having been provided with that which, to a boy going to the show nothing can replace—"a sack of peanuts."

The show over, "an advance" was made on the home of the host. The invitations read, "No girls allowed—Just Boys," and as might be expected, no dolls or such girlish trappings were in evidence. Boxing gloves, manual sports and games were featured, and a good clean "bout" in the "manly art" was had to the great hilarity of the boys. Then there were monologues, dialogue and music, not Tetrazzini, nor Calvo, nor Caruso, nor Campanari and such imports—but, Ad Jones, Billy Murray, Al. Jolson, Len Spencer and such artists to the manner born, with just enough of Harry Lauder for a relish—artists who make the whole world laugh, especially boys. Then there were appealing snapshots of American patriotic airs with a few Celtic melodies which never grow old, to keep alive the folk song of the ancestry of the guests.

In the dining room the mantels were not "banked with lovely, fragrant cut flowers" nor was there visible "any color scheme of pink and white or green and white" or scheme of any color. Nor were the ices in fanciful forms, for when it comes to eating, substance and not form delights your boy. There was the big cake glistening white beneath its eight candles. Amid song and laughter the hours fled.

On his departure, each guest did not, after the trite, stereotyped fashion of society, "vote the host a charming entertainer," but deep down in each manly little breast might be read as their faces, beaming appreciation bespoke, some such sentiment: "Gee, I wish John Francis' birthday came every week!"

Our Colored Citizens.

Omar Thomas, colored, who died in Covington Sunday, will be brought to Maysville today on the 1:36 train for burial. Burial will take place from the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Duke on Strawberry street—above Wood street.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one cure for that old complaint, Catarrh, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for literature.

BISHOP VINCENT

Honored at Celebration of His 25th Anniversary of His Consecration—Bishop Burton Present.

(Monday's Cincinnati Times-Star.)

Religious and social features are combined in Monday's programme of the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Vincent to the Episcopacy of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Many noted clergymen and prominent laymen of the Episcopal Church will participate.

In his sermon, delivered at St. Paul's cathedral Sunday morning Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead of Pittsburgh, who was among the officiating bishops at Bishop Vincent's consecration twenty-five years ago, told of the faithful and earnest work done by Bishop Vincent during the years that he has had charge of the diocese of Southern Ohio.

Bishop Vincent was the celebrant of holy communion at the service, assisted by Bishop Whitehead, Bishop W. A. Leonard, Bishop Theodore Reese and Bishop Lewis W. Burton.

A special Sunday School service was held at which a handsomely bound volume comprising the book of offices for bishops was presented to Bishop Vincent.

THIS NEW MEDICINE

SAVES YOU MONEY

We are druggists right here in your town and make a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs and not because we like to see people suffer—we don't. Our duty is to render the best service we can, and when someone is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine there is for their particular trouble. We don't recommend "cure-alls," as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick, none at all, and you should get the most you can for your money.

We recently came across a new remedy for increasing strength and building up people who are run-down and emaciated. We know that a slight trouble sometimes grows into a serious one, and to stop it in the beginning, will save you money in the end. This new compound is called Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is the best remedy, when you are run-down, tired out, nervous—no matter what the cause. It doesn't merely stimulate you and make you feel good for a few hours, but takes hold of the weakness and builds you up to a healthy, normal condition. It is a real nerve-food tonic and builder of good blood, strong muscles, good digestion. It contains Hypophosphites, which tone the nerves, and pure Olive Oil, which nourishes the nerves, the blood and the entire system. Pleasant to take. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. We promise that if you are not perfectly satisfied with it, we'll give back your money as soon as you tell us. Sold only at the 7,900 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00—Chenoweth Drug Co., corner Second and Sutton Sts.

like all portraits that we make—are natural in pose, properly lighted and beautifully finished. Fast lenses, high-class equipment and tireless tact are the reasons for our remarkable success in baby portraiture. Come in some morning and let us get acquainted with the baby.

BLOCKS SPOILS MOVE.

Washington.—The House Friday struck out of the post-office appropriation bill the amendment that would have made assistant postmasters party spoils. The amendment of Representative Allen of Cincinnati, putting post-office clerks and carriers in a workmen's compensation system, was the only new legislation allowed in the bill.

MARVELOUS BOY COMPOSER.

London.—An absolute furor was created here Friday night by the first performance of the new violin sonata of Erich Korngold, the seventeen-year-old musical genius from Vienna. "Marvellous achievement" is the critics' description of the new violin sonata. "Korngold has not only the spontaneity of a young Mozart, but also shows the intellectual development more appropriate to a man who has lived and learned forty years." The audience applauded for thirty minutes after the conclusion of the sonata.

Mrs. Kate D. Richardson, of Beasley, Essex Co., Va., says: "I esteem it a pleasure to testify to the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For some years I suffered greatly with weakness peculiar to my sex. I was treated by several physicians but gradually grew worse. One of my friends told me of the good results of your 'Favorite Prescription.' I went to the drug store and got a bottle, and after taking it with the 'Pleasant Pellets,' I commenced to get better. I never knew what happiness was for I was always sick and complaining and made others as well as myself unhappy. So you see what a debt I owe you!"

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.
